I. Rules Applicable to All Cases

LR13-101. Authority.

The following rules are hereby adopted and promulgated by the judges of the Thirteenth Judicial District of the State of New Mexico, comprised of the counties of Valencia, Sandoval, and Cibola, under the authority vested in the court by Rule 1-083 NMRA [withdrawn].

[Adopted, effective January 1, 1998; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the rule. Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. S-1-RCR-2024-00078, withdrew 1-083 NMRA, effective July 1, 2024.

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective December 31, 2016, after “Cibola,” deleted “pursuant to” and added “under”, and after “Rule 1-083”, deleted “of the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts” and added “NMRA”.

LR13-102. Title.

[Related Statewide Rule 1-001 NMRA]

These rules shall be cited as the “Local Rules of the Thirteenth Judicial District Court”.

[Adopted, effective January 1, 1998; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective December 31, 2016, added “[Related Statewide Rule 1-001 NMRA]”.

LR13-103. Supreme Court rules control.

If any local rule directly conflicts in letter or application with a rule of civil or criminal procedure adopted by the Supreme Court of New Mexico, the latter shall control.

[Adopted, effective January 1, 1998; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective December 31, 2016, in the rule heading changed “court” to “Court”.

LR13-104. Severability.

If any local rule is invalidated either by court action or otherwise, the remainder of these rules shall continue in force unless otherwise modified or changed by further order of the court.

[Adopted, effective January 1, 1998.]

LR13-105. Conflicts and priorities.

A. Priorities. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the following priorities shall govern:

- (1) criminal and juvenile matters;
- (2) all matters given preference by statute;
- (3) civil jury trials;
- (4) civil nonjury trials;
- (5) domestic relations matters; and
- (6) all other matters.

B. Precedence. The case or matter first set for hearing shall take precedence in each of the above categories.

[Adopted, effective January 1, 1998; LR13-202 recompiled as LR13-105 by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016.]

The 2008 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-09, effective April 15, 2008, removed the previous local rule sections regarding concurrence sought for motions, briefs, responses and replies to motions, service of motions and oral argument, and added the section regarding package procedure. The page limitation and motion for leave sections were not amended except for the relettering of the section.

Recompilations. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, former LR13-404 NMRA was recompiled and amended as LR13-118 NMRA, effective December 31, 2016.

Cross references. — For form of motions and how presented, see Rules 1-007 and 1-007.1 NMRA.

LR13-119. Settings.

The judge of each division shall determine the judge’s general itinerary and schedule and shall inform the clerk of the court of the county affected by the itinerary and schedule.

A. Notice of settings. The judge of each division shall make trial and other settings for the division and furnish counsel and the clerk of the court with a calendar of settings as far in advance as possible. As a general rule, notices of settings shall be given to counsel at least four (4) weeks prior to the trial or hearing date but shorter notice may be given on the consent and agreement of counsel or where, in the discretion of the judge, less notice is required.

B. Trailing docket settings. If a hearing is scheduled as a “back-up” to another matter, or on a trailing docket, the court shall so advise counsel. Counsel shall be responsible for advising the court of any scheduling difficulties, such as arrangements with witnesses, which may make the matter difficult or inappropriate for hearing on a “back-up” or trailing docket basis.

C. Setting is binding on all parties; vacating a setting. All settings made by or with the approval of the court shall be binding on all parties and attorneys properly notified. No setting shall be vacated except on written motion and on the signature of the party approving the continuance, unless this requirement is waived by the court.

D. Failure to meet a trial setting. Failure to give timely notice to the court of an inability to meet a trial setting, where the failure is willful or the result of negligence, may subject the offending party or attorney to appropriate sanctions, including, but not limited to

- (1) dismissal of the case;
- (2) payment of jury and other costs;
- (3) payment of attorneys fees; or
- (4) sanctions as available under the inherent powers of the court.

E. Requests for setting. All requests for setting shall be in the approved form, be completed except for the date and time, and, if the matter is time sensitive, include a statement as to the last calendar date the matter can be heard by the court before the time runs with a citation to the statute or rule regarding the time in which the matter must be heard. Counsel requesting a setting shall provide pre-addressed, stamped envelopes for any counsel or party entitled to notice who does not have a box at the courthouse. The assigned judge’s secretary will file the original of the request for setting form.

[Adopted, effective January 1, 1998; LR13-501 recompiled and amended as LR13-119 by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective December 31, 2016, provided for time sensitive requests for settings and added the paragraph headings; in the introductory paragraph, after “affected”, deleted “thereby” and added “by the itinerary and schedule”; in Paragraph A, after “general rule”, changed “notice” to “notices”, and after “may be given”, deleted “upon” and added “on”; in Paragraph C, changed “upon” to “on” throughout the paragraph; in Paragraph D, after “where”, deleted “such” and added “the”; in Paragraph E, after “approved form”, deleted “and” and added “be”, after “date and time”, deleted “for the setting. (LR13-Form A).” and added “and, if the matter is time sensitive, include a statement as to the last calendar date the matter can be heard by the court before the time runs with a citation to the statute or rule regarding the time in which the matter must be heard”.

Recompilations. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, former LR13-501 NMRA was recompiled and amended as LR13-119 NMRA, effective December 31, 2016.

LR13-120. Vacating trials or settings.

A. Judge shall approve the vacating of a hearing. No setting involving a hearing on the merits will be vacated without prior approval of the judge assigned to the case.

B. Procedure to vacate a hearing. Before counsel contacts the assigned judge to vacate a setting, counsel shall contact all parties or attorneys entitled to notice in order to inform the court of each party’s position as regards the vacation. The court shall either vacate the case, refuse to vacate, or schedule a hearing on the request. Requests to vacate settings of hearings on the merits shall be by motion or stipulated order.

C. Reason for vacating a hearing. An order entered under this rule shall contain the reason for the vacation.

LR13-208. Electronic filing authorized.

[Related Statewide Rule 1-005.2 NMRA]

In accordance with Rule 1-005.2 NMRA, electronic filing is implemented for all civil actions in the Thirteenth Judicial District Court as defined in Rule 1-005.2(B)(1) NMRA, as well as domestic relations actions involving the New Mexico Child Support Enforcement Division. The electronic filing of documents is mandatory for parties represented by attorneys in accordance with Rule 1-005.2 NMRA, which includes attorneys who represent themselves. Guidelines for using the electronic filing system are set forth in the court's user guide that is available in the clerk's office and on the court's website.

[Provisionally approved by Supreme Court Orders No. 10-8300-003 and No. 10-8300-021, for one year, for all cases pending or filed on or after July 1, 2010; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 11-8300-029, provisional period extended until further order of the court with amendments effective for all cases pending or filed on or after June 13, 2011; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 11-8300-038, effective for all cases filed or pending on or after September 30, 2011; LR13-411 recompiled and amended as LR13-208 by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-002, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after September 1, 2019.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-002, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after September 1, 2019, removed probate actions from the application of this rule, and implemented electronic filing in domestic relations actions involving the New Mexico Child Support Enforcement Division; in the first sentence, after "civil", deleted "and probate", and after "Thirteenth Judicial District Court", added "as defined in Rule 1-005.2(B)(1) NMRA, as well as domestic relations actions involving the New Mexico Child Support Enforcement Division".

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective December 31, 2016, added "[Related Statewide Rule 1-005.2 NMRA]".

The second 2011 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 11-8300-038, effective September 30, 2011, changed the rule to the extent that a detailed comparison would be impracticable.

The first 2011 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 11-8300-029, effective June 13, 2011, in Paragraph A, required that documents filed in probate actions after the initial filing of the action be filed electronically.

The 2010 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 10-8300-021, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after July 1, 2010, in Paragraph A, in the first sentence after "domestic relations actions" added "probate actions, and actions sealed under Rule 1-079 NMRA", and in Subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of Paragraph C, at the end of each sentence, added "in any single case".

Recompilations. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, former LR13-411 NMRA was recompiled and amended as LR13-208 NMRA, effective December 31, 2016.

III. Rules Applicable to Criminal Cases

LR13-301. Technical violation program for adult probationers.

[Related Statewide Rule 5-805 NMRA]

A. Program established. This judicial district establishes a technical violation program (TVP) for adult probationers on supervised probation allowing automatic sanctions to occur for technical violations of a probation agreement.

B. Assignment to program. The court in its discretion, and with the approval of the probationer, shall order placement of a probationer into the TVP at any time during the probationer's period of supervised probation. A probationer in the TVP shall waive the probationer's right to any probation violation procedures and hearings, under Rule 5-805 NMRA, if found to have committed a technical violation.

C. Technical violations defined. Technical violations of a probation agreement consist of the probationer

- (1) having a positive urine test for drugs or alcohol;
- (2) possessing alcohol;
- (3) missing a counseling appointment;
- (4) missing a community service appointment;
- (5) an educational appointment; or
- (6) failing to inform the probation officer of a traffic citation received.

D. Sanctions. Sanctions for violations in the TVP are as follows:

- (1) first violation - up to three (3) days in jail;
- (2) second violation - up to seven (7) days in jail;
- (3) third violation - up to fourteen (14) days in jail; and

(4) fourth violation - up to twenty-one (21) days in jail.

E. Removal from the program. After a fourth technical violation a probationer may be subject to removal from the TVP and subsequent violations may be prosecuted under Rule 5-805 NMRA.

F. Other sanctions for technical violations precluded. Sanctions imposed under the TVP preclude further sanctions for the probation violation.

[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-020, effective August 4, 2008; LR13-508 recompiled and amended as LR13-301 by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016.]

Recompilations. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, former LR13-508 NMRA was recompiled and amended as LR13-301 NMRA, effective December 31, 2016.

IV. Rules Applicable to Domestic Relations Cases

LR13-401. Domestic relations alternative dispute resolution (ADR); advisory consultation.

[Related Statewide Rule 1-125 NMRA]

A. Application. Any domestic relations case is subject to this rule and may be referred to ADR or advisory consultation.

B. Referrals. Any party at any time may file a motion requesting referral to ADR or advisory consultation. At the discretion of the court, the court may order the parties to participate in ADR or an advisory consultation.

C. Referral order. The court shall complete and file an order referring the parties to ADR or advisory consultation, appointing the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant, and setting the time period in which the ADR or advisory consultation shall take place, and mail or deliver endorsed copies of the order to all parties entitled to notice and the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant. The order shall not indicate whether the referral was made on a party's request or by the court's own motion. The order may be modified only on subsequent written court order.

D. Appointment of mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant. The court or the parties may choose the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant from a list maintained by the court. The parties may present to the court a stipulated motion requesting that any qualified person act as the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant.

E. Fees. Parties unable to afford the full cost of ADR or of an advisory consultant may request the court assign a mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant willing to accept reimbursement at an amount set by the court. Parties who receive a mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant paid out of court funds shall each pay a fee according to the sliding fee scale adopted under these local rules and approved by the Supreme Court. The sliding fee scale shall be posted on the court's website and inside the courthouse. The ADR or advisory consultation shall not commence until the fee owed by each party is paid in full to the clerk of the court. The parties shall be responsible for providing a copy of the receipt of the required court fee to the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant before the ADR or the advisory consultation begins. The fee may be waived at the discretion of the court.

F. Compensation. The court domestic relations mediation fund may pay up to four (4) hours of ADR or advisory consultation at a court approved hourly rate. If the parties cannot address all matters within four (4) hours of mediation, or the parties need or desire additional consultation beyond four (4) hours, they may petition the court to make further payment to the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant or make their own arrangements with the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant. The court may require payment of an additional fee in accordance with the sliding fee scale referenced in Paragraph E of this rule.

G. Time, place, and attendance. The time and place of the ADR or advisory consultation shall be set by the mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant. Any party, mediator, or advisory consultant may request an extension of time from the date set for ADR or advisory consultation on motion to the court. ADR or advisory consultation may be cancelled by the parties only on motion and written court order. ADR or advisory consultation may be cancelled by the mediator or advisory consultant by letter to the court.

H. ADR results. On partially or fully successful ADR, the mediator or settlement facilitator shall prepare an agreement including a child custody plan when applicable and provide copies to the parties and their attorneys. After every ADR, the mediator or settlement facilitator shall submit a final ADR disposition report and file a certificate of compliance with the court within ten (10) days after the ADR is completed. The ADR disposition report shall state whether any agreement was reached; what issues were addressed; what issues remain unresolved; and suggestions for resolution, provided the mediator meets the confidentiality requirements of the Mediation Procedures Act, Sections 44-7B-1 to -6 NMSA 1978. Copies of the mediation disposition report and certificate of compliance shall be sent to the parties and their attorneys.

I. Advisory consultation results. On completion of an advisory consultation, the advisory consultant shall submit to the judge written recommendations and file a certificate of completion within ten (10) days after the consultation is completed. The written recommendations shall contain a brief assessment summarizing the information, including the situations and relationships of family members and suggestions regarding specific plans, general issues, or requested actions. The advisory consultant shall submit a written report which shall contain the basis for the recommendations together with copies of the recommendations and certificate of completion to the parties and their attorneys.

J. Payment of mediators, settlement facilitators, and advisory consultants. When presenting an invoice for ADR or advisory consultation services, the invoice must have the following documents attached:

- (1) a copy of the receipt evidencing the initial total payment of the parties to the clerk of the court;
- (2) a copy of the order of referral to ADR or advisory consultation;
- (3) a copy of the final mediation disposition report and a certificate of completion; and
- (4) an itemized statement of the charges submitted for payment.

K. Immunity. Attorneys and other persons appointed by the court to serve as mediators, or in other such roles under the rules governing this district's programs under the Domestic Relations Mediation Act, are arms of the court and are immune from liability for conduct within the scope of their duties as provided by law.

[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-009, effective April 15, 2008; LR13-804 recompiled and amended as LR13-401 by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 18-8300-006, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after September 1, 2018.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2018 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 18-8300-006, effective September 1, 2018, authorized the court to assign a mediator, settlement facilitator, or advisory consultant willing to accept reimbursement at an amount set by the court for parties unable to afford the full cost of ADR or of an advisory consultant, authorized the court, in its discretion, to require payment of an additional consultation fee if the parties require additional consultation, lowered the cap on payments from the domestic relations mediation fund, removed the provision related to replacement of the mediator or advisory consultant, provided immunity from liability for attorneys and other persons appointed by the court to serve as mediators for conduct within the scope of the Domestic Relations Mediation Act, and made technical changes and conforming changes; in the heading, deleted “mediation” and added “alternative dispute resolution (ADR)”; in Paragraph A, after “domestic relations case”, deleted “involving child custody”, and after “subject to this rule”, deleted “to assist the court, parents, and other interested parties in determining the best interests of the child. Other related issues involved in a domestic relations case also may be subject to this rule” and added “and may be referred to ADR or advisory consultation”; in Paragraph B, after “ADR or”, added “advisory consultation”; in Paragraph C, substituted each occurrence of “mediation” with “ADR”, and after each occurrence of “mediator,” added “settlement facilitator”; in Paragraph D, after each occurrence of “mediator,” added “settlement facilitator”; rewrote Paragraph E; in Paragraph F, after “domestic relations mediation fund”, deleted “or advisory consultation fund”, substituted each occurrence of “eight (8) hours” with “four (4) hours”, after each occurrence of “mediator”, added “settlement facilitator”, and added the last sentence of the paragraph; in Paragraph G, substituted each occurrence of “mediation” with “ADR”, and after the first occurrence of “mediator”, added “settlement facilitator”; deleted Paragraph H and redesignated former Paragraph I as Paragraph H; in Paragraph H, in the heading, deleted “Mediation” and added “ADR”, and after “results”, deleted “advisory consultation results”, after the paragraph heading, substituted each occurrence of “mediation” with “ADR”, and after each occurrence of “mediator”, added “or settlement facilitator”; added Paragraph I, added heading “Advisory consultation results”, deleted “report” and added “recommendations”, after “requested actions”, deleted “Copies of the recommendations and certificate of completion shall be sent to the parties and their attorneys” and added the last sentence of the paragraph; in Paragraph J, in the heading, added “settlement facilitators”, and substituted each occurrence of “mediation” with “ADR”; and added Paragraph K.

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective December 31, 2016, substituted “on” for “upon” throughout the rule; added “[Related Statewide Rule 1-125 NMRA]”; in Paragraph C, after “consultant”, deleted “set” and added “and setting”; in Paragraph D, after “person”, added “act”; in Paragraph E, after “party is paid”, added “in”; deleted former Paragraph H, which stated “All parties shall attend the mediation or the advisory consultation and engage in meaningful negotiations in good faith.” and redesignated former Paragraphs I, J, and K as Paragraphs H, I, and J, respectively; and in Paragraph I, after “Mediation Procedures Act”, added “Sections 44-7B-1 to -6 NMSA 1978”.

Recompilations. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, former LR13-804 NMRA was recompiled and amended as LR13-401 NMRA, effective December 31, 2016.

LR13-402. Domestic Relations Mediation Act; safe exchange and supervised visitation.

[Related Statewide Rule 1-125 NMRA]

A. Programs established. The district court operates a "safe exchange and supervised visitation program" and "domestic relations mediation program" in accordance with the Domestic Relations Mediation Act.

B. Domestic relations mediation fund; deposit and disbursement of fees. The district court maintains a domestic relations mediation fund for the deposit of all fees collected under the Domestic Relations Mediation Act, which are used to offset the costs of operating the court's safe exchange and supervised visitation program and domestic relations mediation program. Deposits into the domestic relations mediation fund shall include the following:

(1) the surcharge authorized under Section 40-12-6 NMSA 1978 on all new and reopened domestic relations cases; and

(2) fees paid by the parties for mediation, safe exchange and supervised visitation services provided under the Domestic Relations Mediation Act.

C. Sliding fee scales. Mediation, safe exchange, and supervised visitation services provided under the Domestic Relations Mediation Act shall be paid by the parties in accordance with a sliding fee scale submitted to, and approved by, the Supreme Court. The current sliding fee scales approved by the Supreme Court shall be posted on the district court's website and inside the courthouse. Any fees collected from a party under the sliding fee scale shall be paid to the district court clerk, who shall deposit the fees into the domestic relations mediation fund.

D. Initiating services; cooperation required. The court may, on request of any party or on the court's own motion, order the parties to participate in the safe exchange and supervised visitation program or domestic relations mediation program in accordance with the requirements in Rule 1-125 NMRA. Any party ordered to participate in one or both programs shall cooperate with all court staff and outside service providers designated by the court to operate the programs, and any party who fails to do so may be sanctioned or held in contempt of court.

E. Immunity. Attorneys and other persons appointed by the court to serve as mediators, or in other such roles under the rules governing this district's programs under the Domestic Relations Mediation Act, are arms of the court and are immune from liability for conduct within the scope of their duties as provided by law.

[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 18-8300-006, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after September 1, 2018.]

[Reserved]

VI. Rules Applicable to Court Alternative Dispute Resolution Programs

LR13-601. Alternative dispute resolution programs; generally.

[Related statutes NMSA 1978, §§ 34-6-44 and -45]

A. Administration. These programs shall be administered by an ADR program director, applying the local rules and the Mediation Procedures Act, Sections 44-7B-1 to -6 NMSA 1978.

B. Order required. All referrals to these programs require the filing of a written court order.

C. Compromise negotiations. The ADR process will be considered to be “compromise negotiations” under Rule 11-408 NMRA for purposes of admissibility as evidence in potential future hearings.

D. Forms. The applicable court forms included in the local rules for ADR or similar forms that serve the same purpose may be used.

E. Appointment. The court shall appoint ADR professionals as stipulated to by the parties or, absent agreement among the parties, as ordered by the court.

F. Good faith participation in ADR process. Parties shall participate in good faith during ADR. Good faith participation includes, but is not limited to, sufficiently preparing for ADR and engaging in meaningful negotiations during the ADR process.

G. Definitions. When used in these rules, unless the context otherwise provides

(1) “ADR” means all alternative dispute resolution by means of this district's (court-annexed) alternative dispute resolution programs, including mediation and settlement facilitation;

(2) “mediation” means a confidential process by which a neutral third party helps parties to resolve differences through negotiation and collaborative problem solving;

(3) “settlement facilitation” means a process where a neutral third party meets with parties and their attorneys in a settlement conference seeking a negotiated settlement agreement on all or some of the issues of the cases;

(4) “advisory consultation” means a brief assessment about the situation and a written report summarizing the information for the attorneys and the court, as well as suggestions regarding specific plans, general issues, or requested actions.

[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 08-8300-009, effective April 15, 2008; LR13-801 recompiled and amended as LR13-601 by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2016; amended by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-010, effective July 1, 2019.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-010, effective July 1, 2019, added a provision requiring parties to participate in good faith during alternative dispute resolution, and made certain technical changes; substituted “alternative dispute resolution” with “ADR” throughout the rule; and added a new Paragraph F and redesignated the succeeding paragraph accordingly.

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, effective December 31, 2016, in Paragraph A, after “Mediation Procedures Act”, added “Sections 44-7B-1 to -6 NMSA 1978”.

Recompilations. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-015, former LR13-801 NMRA was recompiled and amended as LR13-601 NMRA, effective December 31, 2016.

LR13-602. ADR in civil matters.

[Related statutes NMSA 1978, §§ 34-6-44 and -45]

A. Scope. The court may, under Rule 1-016 NMRA, refer cases to ADR conducted by court-appointed mediators or settlement facilitators throughout the year and during periodic "settlement weeks" as scheduled by the court.

B. Application. This rule applies to civil cases as determined by the court.

C. Referrals. Any party at any time may file a motion requesting referral to ADR. At the discretion of the court, the court may order the parties to participate in ADR.

D. Referral order. The court shall complete and file an order referring the parties to ADR, appointing a mediator or settlement facilitator, setting the time period in which the ADR shall take place, and mail or deliver endorsed copies of the order to all parties entitled to notice and the settlement facilitator or mediator. The order shall not indicate whether the referral was made on a party's request or by the court's own motion. The order may be modified only on subsequent written court order.

E. Assignment of mediator or settlement facilitator. The court or the parties may choose the mediator or settlement facilitator from a list of mediators and settlement facilitators maintained by the court. The parties may present to the court a stipulated motion requesting that any qualified person act as the mediator or settlement facilitator.

F. Time, place, and deadline for mediation or settlement facilitation. The time and place of ADR shall be set by the mediator or settlement facilitator within the timeline ordered by the court. Any party or the mediator or settlement facilitator may request an extension of the deadline on motion to the court.

G. Attendance. Each counsel of record shall attend in person and shall ensure the attendance of all persons who have full and final settlement authority at the entire settlement conference. Other persons not of record may attend on agreement of all parties of record. On motion of any party or on its own motion, the court may impose sanctions for failure to attend the settlement conference or have present all necessary persons, except on a showing of good cause. On motion of any party or on its own motion, the court may impose sanctions for failure to participate in good faith.

H. ADR case information. At least ten (10) days prior to ADR, all parties shall provide the mediator or settlement facilitator with the information listed below. This information shall not be filed with the court or in any way be made part of the court record, nor shall the mediator or settlement facilitator reveal any of the information submitted to the opposing party. On motion of any party or on its own motion, the court may impose sanctions for failure to provide the required information to the mediator or settlement facilitator. The required information that shall be submitted to the mediator or settlement facilitator is

- (1) the case caption, number, and assigned judge;
- (2) the status of the party submitting the information, such as plaintiff, defendant, third party defendant, etc.;
- (3) a brief description of the case (in domestic relations matters include the date of marriage, whether a final decree was issued, occupations, current annual income of the parties, and the names and ages of children);
- (4) a description of the relief sought;
- (5) a list of pending factual issues;
- (6) a list of pending legal issues;
- (7) a list of all remaining discovery;
- (8) a list of any pending dispositive motions;
- (9) an estimate of costs and attorney fees through trial;
- (10) the trial date and other important dates; and
- (11) any other information requested by the mediator or settlement facilitator.

I. Cancelling ADR. ADR may be cancelled by the parties only on motion and written court order. ADR may be cancelled by the mediator or settlement facilitator by letter to the court.

J. Compensation to mediators and settlement facilitators. The court may order the parties to pay reasonable compensation to the mediator or settlement facilitator. Mediators and settlement facilitators may be compensated in one of the following ways:

(1) Parties unable to afford the full cost of ADR may request the court assign a mediator or settlement facilitator willing to accept reimbursement at an amount set by the court. Parties who receive a mediator or settlement facilitator paid out of court funds shall each pay a fee according to the sliding fee scale adopted under these local rules, and approved by the Supreme Court. ADR shall not commence until the fee owed by each party is paid in full to the clerk of the court. The parties shall be responsible for providing a copy of the receipt of the required court fee to the mediator or settlement facilitator before ADR begins. The fee may be waived at the discretion of the court.

(2) The parties may select a mediator or settlement facilitator and negotiate a fee that shall be shared among the parties.

K. ADR reporting. On partially or fully successful mediation or settlement facilitation, the mediator or settlement facilitator shall assist the parties with preparation of any agreement, if requested, and provide copies to the parties and their attorneys. After every mediation and settlement facilitation, the mediator or settlement facilitator shall file a certificate of compliance with the ADR order with the court within ten (10) days after ADR is completed. Copies of the certificate shall be sent to the parties and their attorneys.

LR13-Form 703. Order regarding parenting instructions.

THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF NEW MEXICO
COUNTY OF _____

Petitioner,

v.

No. _____ -DR

Respondent.

ORDER REGARDING PARENTING INSTRUCTIONS

THE PARTIES SHALL FOLLOW, OBEY AND CAREFULLY ABIDE BY EACH AND ALL OF THE PROVISIONS INITIALED BELOW:

- _____ 1. Neither parent will threaten, harass, intimidate, unlawfully assault or batter or physically or mentally abuse the other parent, or a minor child. Law enforcement officers are authorized and required to enforce this provision by preparing a report of the incident, and submitting a copy of it to this court's mailing address, which is _____ or to this court's chambers at _____, New Mexico. The law enforcement officers are also authorized and encouraged to arrest any person they have probable cause to believe has committed unlawful assault (See Section 30-3-1 NMSA 1978) or battery (see Section 30-3-4 NMSA 1978) upon another. See Section 30-3-6 NMSA 1978 for authorization regarding warrantless arrests of assailants when there is probable cause to believe such person assaulted or battered another. This provision remains in full force and effect unless and until it is modified or revoked by subsequent written order of this court.
- _____ 2. Neither parent nor any stepparent, fiancée, or grandparent will criticize, disparage, demean, insult or otherwise "bad-mouth" the other parent, step-parent, fiancée or grandparent to a child or in the presence of a child, nor allow or encourage anyone else, including relatives and friends, to do so. This prohibition applies even to information that is truthful and accurate.
- _____ 3. Neither parent will argue or fight, verbally or physically, in the presence or hearing of a child.
- _____ 4. Neither parent will align or attempt to align a child against a parent, or other relative, nor allow or encourage anyone else, including relatives and friends, to do so. This especially means that neither parent will directly or indirectly ask a child to choose between the parents, or choose to reside with one parent instead of the other, or choose one household over the other household.
- _____ 5. Both parents must encourage a positive parent-child relationship between a child and both parents, and not say or do anything, including "grimace" or put on a "long face", against the child's love for the other parent when a child is about to visit the other parent or asks or talks about the other parent.

- _____ 6. Neither parent will interfere with the parent-child relationship with the other parent, and neither parent will conceal a child from the other parent during the other parent's period of responsibility (time-sharing).
- _____ 7. Neither parent will make plans for a child that conflicts with the other parent's period of responsibility with a child, or discuss such plans with a child or make promises about such plans with a child, unless and until both parents agree in advance to the plans. Doing so creates a serious risk that a child will count on and look forward to a planned or promised activity, only to be disappointed with and distrustful of the parent who made or promised a plan with a child and then could not carry it out.
- _____ 8. If a parent asks the other parent for additional time with a child, or for an activity or plan that would conflict with the other parent's scheduled time or plans with the child, the other parent has an absolute right to say "no" and the requesting parent must accept that answer without bringing such request or negative answer of the other parent to the attention of any of the minor children.
- _____ 9. Neither parent will ask a child to pass orders or instructions or uncomplimentary messages to the other parent through a child, verbally or in writing. Complimentary messages are allowed and encouraged.
- _____ 10. Neither parent will ask a child to keep secrets from the other parent or ask or encourage a child to lie to the other parent about events or persons the child experienced during a visit with a parent, grandparent or relative.
- _____ 11. Neither parent will ask a child to spy on the other parent or the other parent's lifestyle or household; nor ask any detailed, probing questions about the other parent or lifestyle or household of the other parent. This only puts the child in the middle, angering a parent if the question is not answered, or getting the other parent in trouble if it is answered.
- _____ 12. Children have a right to receive unlimited letters, postcards, cassette tape letters and gifts from each parent; and to write unlimited letters and postcards, including tape-recorded messages and letters, and send gifts to each parent. Homemade video tapes by parents to children (and vice-versa) are allowed and encouraged. All such letters, gifts and tapes shall be provided, read or played forthwith to the children. These letters, cards and tapes must not violate other provisions of this order (see especially Paragraphs 1 through 11 above). This provision shall not be justification or excuse not to provide, read or play the message to any of the children, but the improper words or sentence can be deleted during reading or playing the message to the children. If a parent deletes words, sentences, etc., the parent should keep the original letter and deletions. Children age ten (10) or over should receive the letter, card, or recording unopened and uncensored, and may allow either parent to read or see or hear the message, even if the writing or sending parent does not want the child to do so or asks the child not to do so.

- _____ 13. If the parents are not in locations requiring long-distance calls to contact the children, the children will have a right to make unlimited phone calls to the absent parent during the absent parent's normal waking hours. Also, the absent parent may make up to two 15-minute calls per week (Monday to Monday week) with the minor children, but should never force them to remain on the phone longer than the children want to. This will only cause the children to not want to receive phone calls from the absent parent. The parent having time-sharing with a child at the time of a phone call between a child and the absent parent must not listen in on both sides of the phone call, nor in any way cause a child to believe the custodial parent is intentionally listening in on the child's words or taking note of what the child said during the conversation. Also, the parent having time-sharing shall never ask, order or encourage a child not to be available to receive a phone call or not to answer the phone, or to refuse to speak with the calling parent or to hang up or terminate the call sooner than the child wants to on the child's own initiative.
- _____ 14. If the parents are in locations requiring long-distance phone calls to contact a minor child of the parties, then:
- A. the absent parent will have a right to make up to two 15-minute calls each week (Monday to Monday week) with each child, at the expense of the calling parent. These calls ordinarily should be made in the evening or on weekends to enable the children to be at home to receive the call, and to reduce the costs of phone calls themselves;
- B. each child shall have the right to make up to two 15-minute calls per week (Monday to Monday week) to the absent parent. The first call during that week will be at the expense of the custodial parent. Unless both parents agree otherwise before the second call, the second call will be at the expense of the parent receiving the call (i.e. collect to the receiving parent with request that the receiving parent call back station-to-station to the phone number where the child will receive the call).
- _____ 15. Unless there is a court order or written parenting plan providing for out-of-state time-sharing with children for more than fifteen (15) days, neither parent will remove a child from this state for more than fifteen (15) days without notifying the other parent in writing at least thirty (30) days before such removal, and must specify the purpose and destination of the trip and expected date of return. Any visitation period of the other parent that is reduced or overridden by such vacation period shall be made up in full to the other parent.

- _____ 16. Each parent must notify the other parent in writing of any change of home address, mailing address, if different from home address, and all home telephone numbers no later than seven (7) calendar days from any such change, and preferably even before a change occurs. This insures that written and telephone communications between the children and absent parent can continue, and that child support payments and other written communications can be completed. This court recommends, but does not order or require, that each parent provide the parent's work telephone number to the other parent and children for use on urgent or emergency matters. Neither parent shall telephone the other parent or employer or supervisor of a parent and threaten, harass, intimidate, or mentally abuse the parent or employer or supervisor nor allow or encourage or cause anyone else, including the children or relative or friend, to do so.
- _____ 17. If both parents reside within 60 miles of one another, neither parent may relocate out of state or more than 100 miles from the other parent without giving the other parent at least sixty (60) days advance written notice, and specifying therein where the planned new permanent residence will be.
- _____ 18. In the event of a move or planned move as described in Paragraph 17 the parents should quickly begin discussions before the move occurs about child time-sharing or visitation. If they cannot agree on a new time-sharing plan at least thirty (30) days before the date of the move, they must engage in mediation pursuant to these rules. It is highly recommended that a new written parenting plan be agreed upon and signed by both parents and a district judge before the move occurs or is completed, so that the moving parent will not have to return and complete the mediation and new parenting plan.
- _____ 19. Unless both parents agree otherwise in advance, the clothing, books and toys a child takes to the other parent shall be returned with the child at the conclusion of that parent's responsibility or visitation with the child - even if the original clothes, books, and toys are returned in a bag carried by the child. Preferably, the clothes should be washed before their return with the child.
- _____ 20. Each child shall have a right to have a photograph of each parent and grandparent in the child's room or child's private area; such photographs shall be clearly visible to the child and not hidden in drawers or turned toward a wall.
- _____ 21. Child support shall not be reduced, delayed, or cut off because of disagreements between the parents or because visitation had been reduced or cut off. (The court can handle wrongful reduction or cutting off of visitation by contempt of court or other remedy, without penalizing a child's right to be both supported emotionally and financially by both parents.)

- _____ 22. Time sharing or visitation shall not be reduced or cut off because of disagreements between the parents, or because child support is not being paid in full or on time. (The court can handle wrongful reduction or cutting off of visitation by contempt of court or other remedy, without penalizing a child's right to visitation and good relationship with the other parent.)
- _____ 23. Both parents and all others driving a child in a motor vehicle shall have the children securely fastened in child restraint devices, for younger children, and seatbelts and shoulder harnesses, for older children, whenever the engine of the vehicle is running, or the motor vehicle is moving. If the vehicle is a bicycle, motorscooter, motorcycle or three-wheel or four-wheel motorized all-terrain vehicle (ATV), parents and drivers of such vehicle shall have the child-passenger wear a securely fastened helmet approved by the federal Department of Transportation (DOT) or Snell Memorial Foundation whenever the engine of the vehicle is running or the bicycle or vehicle is moving.
- _____ 24. Neither parent, nor their spouse, fiancée or girlfriend or boyfriend may possess, use or be under the influence of any alcoholic beverages, including hang-overs, or illegal drugs in the presence of a child.
