9-1-5. Secretary; duties and general powers.

A. The secretary is responsible to the governor for the operation of the department. It is the secretary's duty to manage all operations of the department and to administer and enforce the laws with which the secretary or the department is charged.

B. To perform the secretary's duties, the secretary has every power expressly enumerated in the laws, whether granted to the secretary or the department or any division of the department, except where authority conferred upon any division is explicitly exempted from the secretary's authority by statute. In accordance with these provisions, the secretary shall:

(1) except as otherwise provided in the Executive Reorganization Act, exercise general supervisory and appointing authority over all department employees, subject to any applicable personnel laws and regulations;

(4) within the limitations of available appropriations and applicable laws, employ and fix the compensation of those persons necessary to discharge the secretary's duties;

(5) take administrative action by issuing orders and instructions, not inconsistent with the law, to assure implementation of and compliance with the provisions of law for whose administration or execution the secretary is responsible and to enforce those orders and instructions by appropriate administrative action or actions in the courts;

(6) conduct research and studies that will improve the operations of the department and the provision of services to the residents of the state;

The department shall pay the costs of these bonds; and

(14) require performance bonds of such department employees and officers as the secretary deems necessary, as provided in the Surety Bond Act. The department shall pay the costs of these bonds.

C. The secretary may apply for and receive, with the governor's approval, in the name of the department any public or private funds, including United States government funds, available to the department to carry out its programs, duties or services.

D. Where functions of departments overlap or a function assigned to one department could better be performed by another department, a secretary may recommend appropriate legislation to the next session of the legislature for its approval.

E. The secretary may make and adopt such reasonable procedural rules as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the department and its divisions. No rule promulgated by the director of any division in carrying out the functions and duties of the division shall be effective until approved by the secretary unless otherwise provided by statute. Unless otherwise provided by statute, no rule affecting any person or agency outside the department shall be adopted, amended or repealed without a public hearing on the proposed action before the secretary or a hearing officer designated by the secretary. The public hearing shall be held in Santa Fe unless otherwise permitted by statute. Notice of the subject matter of the rule, the action proposed to be taken, the time and place of the hearing, the manner in which interested persons may present their views and the method by which copies of the proposed rule or proposed amendment or repeal of an existing rule may be obtained shall be published once at least thirty days prior to the hearing date in a newspaper of general circulation and mailed at least thirty days prior to the hearing date to all persons who have made a written request for advance notice of hearing. All rules shall be filed in accordance with the State Rules Act [Chapter 14, Article 4 NMSA 1978].

F. If this section conflicts with the powers and duties specifically given by statute to a particular secretary, the specific powers and duties shall control. If this section conflicts with other statutes specifically limiting the powers of a secretary, the specific limitations shall control.

Unless otherwise provided by law, neither a department secretary nor any other employee of the executive branch of state government, or any agency, may, by administrative action, create an agency, board, commission or any other entity of state government. This section shall not apply to:

A. advisory committees created in accordance with Section 9 [9-1-9 NMSA 1978] of the Executive Reorganization Act; and

Current application. — An executive order, issued pursuant to this section, under which the New Mexico real estate commission was placed under the supervision of the New Mexico regulation and licensing department has not yet been replaced or repealed and continues today as does this section and is therefore the current law. N.M. Regulation & Licensing Dep't v. Lujan, 1999-NMCA-059, 127 N.M. 233, 979 P.2d 744.

Statutes and rules of individual licensing boards not superseded. — This section and the Regulation and Licensing Department Act [9-16-1 to 9-16-13 NMSA 1978] do not supersede the specific powers and duties that the legislature has given to the board of veterinary examiners pursuant to the Veterinary Practice Act. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-58.

Legislative purpose. — By enacting this section, the legislature did not delegate to the governor its power to repeal the statutes governing the individual boards and commissions; such an action would be in contravention of article III, § 1 of the New Mexico constitution. The more reasonable interpretation of the act is that the legislature merely delegated to the regulation and licensing department administrative or ministerial duties with respect to licensing functions of the autonomous boards; the intent of this section is to give the governor the opportunity to select initially which boards would have the regulation and licensing department administer their licensing functions. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-58.

Commerce and Industry Department (Repealed.)

9-2-1 to 9-2-13. Repealed.

For present provisions, see 9-15-1 NMSA 1978 et seq. and 9-16-1 NMSA 1978 et seq. relating to new departments which have assumed many of the functions of the commerce and industry department.

All powers and duties conferred by law upon the director of the office of education or the chief of the public school finance division were transferred to the superintendent of public instruction. 9-7-11.1. Findings and purpose.

A. The legislature finds that good health is among our most cherished desires. To achieve optimal health requires both individual and collective responsibility and action, and therefore, state government must assume a leadership role by establishing and implementing policies in all aspects of health. In order to fulfill its proper leadership obligation within public resource constraints, the state must perform a variety of carefully tailored roles in concert with individuals, the private sector and local, federal and tribal governments.

B. The legislature also finds that health care requires a growing portion of the state's public and private resources and impacts a broad segment of the state's economy; a need, therefore, exists to establish an entity for research, guidance and recommendations on health policy and planning issues.

C. The purpose of the New Mexico health policy commission is to provide a forum for the discussion of complex and controversial health policy and planning issues and for the creative exploration of ideas, issues and problems surrounding health policy and planning, including the interrelations with education, the environment and economic well-being.

D. It is the policy of the state of New Mexico to promote optimal health; to prevent disease, disability and premature death; to improve the quality of life; and to assure that basic health services are available, accessible, acceptable and culturally appropriate, regardless of financial status. This policy shall be realized through the following organized efforts:

- (1) education, motivation and support of the individual in healthy behavior;
- (2) protection and improvement of the physical and social environments;
- (3) promotion of health services for early diagnosis and prevention of disease and disability; and
- (4) provisions of basic treatment services needed by all New Mexicans.

(c) resolve by agreement the manner and extent to which the authority shall provide budgeting, recordkeeping and related clerical assistance to administratively attached agencies; and

(11) appoint, with the governor's consent, a "director" for each division. These appointed positions are exempt from the provisions of the Personnel Act [Chapter 10, Article 9 NMSA 1978]. Persons appointed to these positions shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary, except as provided in Section 9-8-9 NMSA 1978.

C. The secretary may apply for and receive, with the governor's approval, in the name of the authority, any public or private funds, including United States government funds, available to the authority to carry out its programs, duties or services.

D. Where functions of departments overlap or a function assigned to one department could better be performed by another department, the secretary may recommend appropriate legislation to the next session of the legislature for its approval.

E. The secretary may make and adopt such reasonable procedural rules as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the authority and its divisions. No rule promulgated by the director of any division in carrying out the functions and duties of the division shall be effective until approved by the secretary unless otherwise provided by statute. Unless otherwise provided by statute, no rule affecting any person or agency outside the authority shall be adopted, amended or repealed without a public hearing on the proposed action before the secretary or a hearing officer designated by the secretary. The public hearing shall be held in Santa Fe unless otherwise permitted by statute. Notice of the subject matter of the rule, the action proposed to be taken, the time and place of the hearing, the manner in which interested persons may present their views and the method by which copies of the proposed rule or proposed amendment or repeal of an existing rule may be obtained shall be published once at least thirty days prior to the hearing date in a newspaper of general circulation and mailed at least thirty days prior to the hearing date to all persons who have made a written request for advance notice of hearing.

F. In the event the secretary anticipates that adoption, amendment or repeal of a rule will be required by a cancellation, reduction or suspension of federal funds or order by a court of competent jurisdiction:

(1) if the secretary is notified by appropriate federal authorities at least sixty days prior to the effective date of such cancellation, reduction or termination of federal funds, the authority is required to promulgate rules through the public hearing process to be effective on the date mandated by the appropriate federal authority; or

Interim rules shall not be promulgated without first providing a written notice twenty days in advance to providers of medical or behavioral health services and beneficiaries of authority programs. At the time of the promulgation of the interim rules, the authority shall give notice of the public hearing on the final rules in accordance with Subsection E of this section.

G. If the secretary certifies to the secretary of finance and administration and gives contemporaneous notice of such certification through the human services register that the authority has insufficient state funds to operate any of the programs it administers and that reductions in services or benefit levels are necessary, the secretary may engage in interim rulemaking. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the State Rules Act [Chapter 14, Article 4 NMSA 1978], interim rulemaking shall be conducted pursuant to Subsection E of this section, except:

(1) the period of notice of public hearing shall be fifteen days;

(2) the authority shall also send individual notices of the interim rulemaking and of the public hearing to affected providers and beneficiaries;

(3) rules promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall be in effect not less than five days after the public hearing;

(5) if final rules are necessary to replace the interim rules, the authority shall give notice of intent to promulgate final rules at the time of notice. The final rules shall be promulgated not more than forty-five days after the public hearing and filed in accordance with the State Rules Act.

H. At the time of the promulgation of the interim rules, the authority shall give notice of the public hearing on the final rules in accordance with Subsection E of this section.

I. The secretary shall ensure that any behavioral health services, including mental health and substance abuse services, provided, contracted for or approved are in compliance with the requirements of Section 24A-3-1 NMSA 1978.

J. All rules shall be filed in accordance with the State Rules Act.

Department's burden in an action to recover improper payments from providers.

— In an action to recover improper payments to providers, the New Mexico human services department [health care authority department] not only must provide by a preponderance of the evidence at the fair hearing that the identified claims failed, but also that its mathematical calculations of the overpayment were properly calculated and the methodology it used to choose the sample was valid. Counseling Center, Inc. v. N.M. Human Servs. Dep't, 2018-NMCA-063, cert. denied.

Provider's burden in a department action to recover improper payments. — If a health care provider wishes to challenge the methodology used to choose the sample size of an audit or to randomly select the claims for audit, the relevant regulation requires that, rather than merely choose a different sample size, or select a different set of claims for audit, the provider must audit the entire universe of claims at issue. Counseling Center, Inc. v. N.M. Human Servs. Dep't, 2018-NMCA-063, cert. denied.

The administrative law judge improperly shifted the burden of proof. — Where the New Mexico human services department (HSD) [health care authority department] appealed the district court's reversal of an administrative decision requiring respondent, a behavioral health care provider, to reimburse HSD for claimed overpayments, and where the administrative law judge (ALJ) failed to reach any conclusion regarding the validity of the alleged failed claims because respondent had not performed a one-hundred percent audit of the universe of provider records, the ALJ improperly shifted the burden of proof to respondent, as respondent was not required to provide a one-hundred percent audit of the universe of providers before the ALJ could properly consider whether the claims used to extrapolate respondent's alleged overpayment actually failed. Counseling Center, Inc. v. N.M. Human Servs. Dep't, 2018-NMCA-063, cert. denied.

Substantial evidence of over payment of medicaid funds. — Where the New Mexico human services department (HSD) [health care authority department] appealed the district court's reversal of an administrative decision requiring respondent, a behavioral health care provider, to reimburse HSD for claimed overpayments, and where the administrative law judge (ALJ) concluded that respondent was credited with medicaid funds, notwithstanding that respondent did not bill these claims to medicaid, the district court erred when it concluded that the ALJ's decision requiring respondent to return fees was not supported by substantial evidence, because the uncontroverted evidence established that respondent was paid with medicaid funds that were not eligible for payment by medicaid, and federal law requires that overpayments of medicaid funds must be returned. Counseling Center, Inc. v. N.M. Human Servs. Dep't, 2018-NMCA-063, cert. denied.

9-8-7.2. Cooperation with the New Mexico health insurance exchange.

The medical assistance division of the authority shall cooperate with the New Mexico health insurance exchange to share information and facilitate transitions in enrollment between the exchange and medicaid.

Any fee for a service adopted under this section shall not be charged to or payable by any person not taking advantage of the service. Amounts collected pursuant to this section are appropriated to the department to defray the expense of providing the service.

History: 1978 Comp., § 9-11-6.1, enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 70, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 1990, ch. 70 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 16, 1990, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

9-11-6.2. Administrative regulations, rulings, instructions and orders; presumption of correctness.

A. The secretary is empowered and directed to issue and file as required by law all regulations, rulings, instructions or orders necessary to implement and enforce any provision of any law the administration and enforcement of which the department, the secretary, any division of the department or any director of any division of the department is charged, including all rules and regulations necessary by reason of any alteration of any such law. In order to accomplish its purpose, this provision is to be liberally construed.

B. Directives issued by the secretary shall be in form substantially as follows:

- (1) regulations shall be written statements of the secretary of general application, interpreting and exemplifying the statutes to which they relate;
- (2) rulings shall be written statements of the secretary, of limited application to one or a small number of persons, interpreting the statutes to which they relate, ordinarily issued in response to a request for clarification of the consequences of a specified set of circumstances;
- (3) orders shall be written statements of the secretary or delegate of the secretary to implement a decision after a hearing; and

(4) instructions shall be other written statements or directives of the secretary or secretary's delegate not dealing with the merits of any law but otherwise in aid of the accomplishment of the duties of the secretary.

C. To be effective, any ruling or regulation issued by the secretary shall be reviewed by the attorney general or other legal counsel of the department prior to being filed as required by law, and the fact of the review shall be indicated on the ruling or regulation.

D. To be effective, a regulation shall first be issued as a proposed regulation and filed for public inspection in the office of the secretary. Unless otherwise provided by statute, no regulation affecting any person or agency outside the department shall be adopted, amended or repealed without a public hearing on the proposed action before the secretary or a hearing officer designated by the secretary. The public hearing shall be held in Santa Fe unless otherwise permitted by statute. Notice of the subject matter of the regulation, the action proposed to be taken, the time and place of the hearing, the manner in which interested parties may present their views and the method by which copies of the proposed regulation, proposed amendment or repeal of an existing regulation may be obtained shall be published at least thirty days prior to the hearing date in the New Mexico register and mailed at least thirty days prior to the hearing date to all persons who have made a written request for advance notice of hearing. After the proposed regulation has been on file for not less than sixty days and a public hearing on the proposed action has been held by the secretary or a hearing officer designated by the secretary, the secretary may issue it as a final regulation by signing the regulation and filing the regulation in the manner required by law. The secretary shall not delegate the authority to sign regulations.

E. In addition to filing copies of regulations with the state records administrator as required by law, the secretary shall maintain in the office of the secretary a duplicate official set of current and superseded regulations, a set of current and superseded rulings and such additional sets of those regulations and rulings as appear necessary, which duplicate or additional sets shall be available for inspection by the public, but superseded regulations need be maintained for no longer than ten years from the date of supersession.

F. The secretary shall develop and maintain a file of names and addresses of individuals and professional and industry groups having an interest in the promulgation of new, revised or proposed regulations. At convenient times, the secretary shall distribute to these persons all such regulations and all pertinent rulings, making such charges as will defray the expense incurred in their physical preparation and mailing. Such charges are appropriated to the department to defray the costs of preparing and distributing regulations and rulings.

G. Any regulation, ruling, instruction or order issued by the secretary or delegate of the secretary is presumed to be a proper implementation of the provisions of the laws that are charged to the department, the secretary, any division of the department or any director of any division of the department.

H. The extent to which regulations, rulings and orders will have retroactive effect shall be stated, and if no such statement is made, they will be applied prospectively only.

The 2015 amendment, effective July 1, 2015, amended the Taxation and Revenue Department Act by removing "hearing officers" from provisions that authorized the secretary or delegate of the secretary to issue administrative orders for the taxation and revenue department; in Subsection B, Paragraph (1), after "exemplifying the", changed "statues" to "statutes"; in Subsection B, Paragraph (3), after "statements of the secretary or", deleted "a hearing officer or other"; in Subsection D, after "prior to the hearing date in", deleted "a"; in Subsection E, after "state records", deleted "center" and added "administrator"; and in Subsection G, after "issued by the secretary or", deleted "order or instruction issued by a hearing officer or other".

Retroactive effect. — Whether or not a ruling has retroactive effect is limited to the effect of the ruling itself, and any failure to provide expressly for retroactivity does not change the law that was in effect prior to the ruling. Amoco Prod. Co. v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 2003-NMCA-092, 134 N.M. 162, 74 P.3d 96.

Judicial review of rulings. — The legislature has provided a comprehensive scheme for protesting department of revenue and county actions. In not providing more specifically for judicial review of a ruling, the legislative intent was that the ruling should be applied before it is reviewed, in the absence of some applicable exception. Grand Lodge of Ancient & Accepted Masons v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1987-NMCA-081, 106 N.M. 179, 740 P.2d 1163, cert. denied, 106 N.M. 174, 740 P.2d 1158 (decided under prior law).

Director's (now secretary's) instructions to be in ordinary language. — To aid in the accomplishment of his duties, instructions issued by the director (now secretary) to every resident individual upon whom an income tax is imposed should be in ordinary, everyday language understood by the man or woman on the street. *Davis v. Director (now secretary) reversed for arbitrariness. — Since the commissioner (now secretary), before arriving at a decision, did not consider all of the evidence presented at the hearing but only that pertaining to the "indicia" under G.R. Regulation 12.5:1, the court could not say that he would have reached the same conclusion had all of "the evidence presented and admitted" been considered as required by Section 7-1-24 NMSA 1978 and therefore held the ruling reversed for arbitrariness. *Eaton v. 9-24-8. Secretary; duties and general powers.

A. The secretary is responsible to the governor for the operation of the department. It is the secretary's duty to manage all operations of the department and to administer and enforce the laws with which he or the department is charged.

B. To perform his duties, the secretary has every power expressly enumerated in the law, whether granted to the secretary, the department or any division of the department, except when any division is explicitly exempted from the secretary's power by statute. In accordance with these provisions, the secretary shall:

(4) within the limitations of available appropriations and applicable laws, employ and fix the compensation of those persons necessary to discharge his duties;

(5) take administrative action by issuing orders and instructions, not inconsistent with law, to ensure implementation of and compliance with the provisions of law for which administration or execution he is responsible and to enforce those orders and instructions by appropriate administrative action in the courts;

(6) conduct research and studies that will improve the operation of the department and the provision of services to the citizens of the state;

(8) prepare an annual budget for the department; and

(9) provide cooperation, at the request of administratively attached agencies and adjunct agencies, in order to:

(a) minimize or eliminate duplication of services and jurisdictional conflicts;

(b) coordinate activities and resolve problems of mutual concern; and

(c) resolve by agreement the manner and extent to which the department shall provide budgeting, record keeping and related clerical assistance to administratively attached agencies.

C. The secretary may apply for and receive, with the governor's approval, in the name of the department, any public or private funds, including United States government funds, available to the department to carry out its programs, duties or services.

D. The secretary may make and adopt such reasonable and procedural rules as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the department and its divisions. No rule promulgated by the director of any division in carrying out the functions and duties of the division shall be effective until approved by the secretary. Unless otherwise provided by statute, no rule affecting any person or agency outside the department shall be adopted, amended or repealed without a public hearing on the proposed action before the secretary or a hearing officer designated by the secretary. The final public hearing on adoption, amendment or repeal of a rule shall be held in Santa Fe unless otherwise permitted by statute. Notice of the subject matter of the rule, the action proposed to be taken, the time and place of the hearing, the manner in which interested persons may present their views and the method by which copies of the proposed rule or proposed amendment or repeal of an existing rule may be obtained shall be published once at least thirty days prior to the hearing date in a newspaper of general circulation and mailed at least thirty days prior to the hearing date to all persons who have made a written request for advance notice of hearing. Authority of secretary of public education to revoke teachers' licenses. — Article XII, Section 6 of the New Mexico Constitution, the Uniform Licensing Act [61-1-1 to 61-1-31 NMSA 1978], the Public Education Department Act [Chapter 9, Article 24 NMSA 1978], the Public School Code [Chapter 22 NMSA 1978], and the School Personnel Act [Chapter 22, Article 10A NMSA 1978], do not preclude the secretary of public education from having exclusive authority to make the final decision to revoke a teacher's license. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

Secretary's authority to disregard hearing officer's credibility determination. —

Where plaintiff was charged with engaging in inappropriate and improper sexual behavior with a fourteen-year-old victim at a charter school; a hearing officer found that the charges against plaintiff had not been proven by a preponderance of the evidence and recommended that the disciplinary action against plaintiff be dismissed; the secretary of public education reviewed the record before the hearing officer, adopted some of the hearing officer's recommendations and rejected others, and concluded that a preponderance of the evidence warranted revocation and revoked plaintiff's license to teach; the essential difference between the hearing officer's view of the case and that of the secretary was how they viewed the credibility of plaintiff and the victim and the believability of their testimony; the regulations of the public education department provided that the hearing officer had the duty to make proposed findings and conclusions; the secretary was not an appellate reviewer of the hearing officer's findings and conclusions, the secretary had the authority, after reviewing the record, to modify the hearing officer's findings and conclusions; and the secretary was ultimately responsible for issuing a final decision; and after reviewing the record, the secretary made independent findings of fact that were supported by references to the hearing transcript, the secretary did not exceed the secretary's authority by making the secretary's own credibility or fact-based determinations. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

Revocation of teacher's license did not violate due process. — Where plaintiff was charged with engaging in inappropriate and improper sexual behavior with a fourteen-year-old victim at a charter school; a hearing officer found that the charges against plaintiff had not been proven by a preponderance of the evidence, based in part on the credibility of the witnesses, and recommended that the disciplinary action against plaintiff be dismissed; the secretary of public education reviewed the record and concluded that a preponderance of the evidence warranted revocation; the secretary's conclusions were supported by the record and were based on the secretary's analysis of the facts presented by the witnesses, the contradictions in the facts, and the victim's written statement, plaintiff was not denied due process by the fact that the secretary failed to observe the witnesses' demeanor or by the secretary's failure to defer to the hearing officer's proposed findings of fact. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

Revocation of teacher's license was supported by substantial evidence. — Where plaintiff was charged with engaging in inappropriate and improper sexual behavior with a fourteen-year-old victim; the victim was considering attending the charter school; the owners and operators of the school, who were the godparents of the victim, hosted an event in their home; the victim and plaintiff stayed overnight and slept in the living room where the alleged contact occurred when the victim and plaintiff were alone, the decision of the secretary of public education to revoke plaintiff's teacher's license was supported by substantial evidence. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

Amendment to rule, without notice or public hearing, violated this section. —

Where a current New Mexico regulation, 6.60.6.9 NMAC (2010), did not provide for any flexibility for a teacher to advance if he/she did not meet competency by being rated ineffective or minimally effective, and where the public education department issued a memorandum, which effectively changed the requirements of the regulation by allowing level 1 and level 2 teachers whose contracts expired in June 2015 to advance with a minimally competent rating, the memorandum violates 9-24-8(D) NMSA 1978, because the public education department, without notice or public hearing, amended a rule which affects superintendents of and teachers employed by local school districts and charter schools, or "persons outside the [public education] department." Validity of Guidelines Amending Public Education Department Regulations Governing Teacher Licensure Advancement (11/13/18), [Att'y Gen. 9-24-9. Public education commission.

A. The "public education commission" is created pursuant to Article 12, Section 6 of the constitution of New Mexico. The commission shall be administratively attached to the department, with administrative staff provided by the department. Additional requests for staff services shall be made through the secretary. Public education commission's implied authority to issues rules and regulations governing the operation and oversight of state-chartered charter schools. — Agencies are created by statute, and are limited to the power and authority expressly granted or necessarily implied by those statutes, and although the legislature did not grant the public education commission express authority to issue rules and regulations governing the operation and oversight of state-chartered charter schools, a court could reasonably find that its authority to do so may be fairly implied from the "powers and duties" expressly set forth in NMSA 1978, § 22-8B-16 and those "functions" specified in 22-8B-5.3 NMSA 1978. Public Education Commission Required by Law to Follow State Rules Act (12/6/2022), [Att'y Gen. 9-24-10. Organizational units of the department; powers and duties specified by law; access to information.

Those organizational units of the department and the officers of those units specified by law shall have all of the powers and duties enumerated in the specific laws involved. However, the carrying out of those powers and duties shall be subject to the direction and supervision of the secretary, who shall retain the final decision-making authority and responsibility for the administration of any laws as provided in Subsection B of Section 8 [9-24-8 NMSA 1978] of the Public Education Department Act. The department shall have access to all records, data and information of other state departments, agencies and institutions, including its own organizational units, not specifically held confidential by law.
